EDITORIAL

BROADSWORD - A weapon in the Struggle.

Every copy of this publication which is read by someone outside the British Movement network is a shot fired against the enemy; a blow against the 'Establishment' and their democracy's 'Old Corruption'.

Publications like Broadsword are a window on the ideas and policies of modern British National Socialism, an opportunity to explain what we believe and why.

Consider the wisdom of American N.S. revolutionary and 'Order' militant Gary Lee Yarborough, "it does not require an army to publish and distribute literature. The publishing and distribution of literature and propaganda should be the main function of any above ground overt organisation. This strategy will prevent, or at least limit, the undesirable elements that attach themselves to our operations. The publishing and distribution of our causes' literature is a vital component of our struggle. It is imperative that our presses produce quality literature to enlighten, educate, and convert new prospects to our cause and instill a sense of racial unity."

It is for these very reasons that for the past decade British Movement has put the bulk of its effort and resources into creating the NS Press U.K. - a task not yet completed and still very much in need of support, funds and equipment.

'Every journey begins with one step'
National Socialism can, and must triumph.

THE WEREWOLF COLUMN

TIME IS RUNNING OUT -SOON THE TIME WILL COME WHEN EVERYTHING BREAKS DOWN AND OUR COUNTRY WILL BE IN CHAOS - THEN IT WILL BE TOO LATE TO START SPREADING OUR MESSAGE, THE TIME TO BE HEARD IS NOW!

 AS BROADSWORD GOES TO PRESS THE TRIAL HAS BEGUN OF THE LONE BOMBER DAVID COPELAND AND THE MEDIA ARE HAVING AN ANTI-RACIST FIELD-DAY. WAY BACK IN BROADSWORD ISSUE 16 OUR ANALYSIS OF THE CASE WAS THAT THE BOMBER WAS NOT A GENUINE POLITICAL ACTIVIST BUT WAS EITHER A LONE PSYCHOTIC OR A STOOGES FOR THE SECRET STATE. IT APPEARS THAT COPELAND HELD A BRIEF PERIOD OF MEMBERSHIP IN THE NSM (NATIONAL SOCIALIST MOVEMENT) A SHORT LIVED SPLINTER GROUP WHICH FORMED OUT OF THE SARGENT FACTION OF C18.

CERTAINLY COPELAND'S VIEW OF NATIONAL SOCIALISM IS NOT THE CONSIDERED POLITICAL VIEWPOINT OF A GENUINE N.S. IDEOLOGIST, BUT HAS EVERYTHING IN KEEPING WITH THE HATE-FILLED MEDIA STEREO-TYPE OF HOLLYWOOD AND TV FICTION.

AS THIS COLUMN HAS STATED MANY TIMES, THE BUILDING OF A NATIONAL SOCIALIST REVOLUTION CANNOT BE ACHIEVED BY A QUICK FIX, IT NEEDS TIME, RESOURCES AND DEDICATION. THE FOUNDATIONS OF OUR NEW ORDER MUST BE SOLID AND PERMANENT, ESTABLISHING A WHITE, BRITISH COUNTER-CULTURE TO PRESENT 'MULTI-CULTURAL MUCK-HEAP'

TO BUILD A MASS MOVEMENT REQUIRES COURAGE, COMMITMENT AND THE WILL TO BE 'ONE NATION AND ONE PEOPLE'.

RESISTANCE NEEDS TO BE SPREAD THROUGH A NETWORK OF GENUINE ACTIVISTS AND THE TOTALLY COMMITTED, NOT THROUGH HALF A DOZEN RANDOM ACTS OF TERROR AND MAYHEM WHICH PLAY INTO THE HANDS OF OUR POLITICAL ENEMIES AND THEIR WELL PRACTICED SECURITY SERVICES. THE LESSON OF HISTORY WILL PROVE THIS TO BE TRUE.

BROADSWORD regularly receives press cuttings from across the UK and overseas which illustrate how far that Multi-racial madness has gripped Britain and Europe.

Periodically we also receive cuttings and letters which illustrate that there is growing resistance to this onslaught - it is fitting that here in the Werewolf column we acknowledge that in the depths of multi-racial chaos that is London, there is active White National Socialist resistance on the streets of Southwark.

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Help us offer a warm welcome to asylum seekers

The Refugee Council is the leading charity working with asylum seekers and refugees in the UK.

Our One Stop Service provides newly arrived asylum seekers with access to a wide range of essential support.

The Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 brings fundamental changes to the way asylum seekers are supported and considerable challenges to the support systems required to assist them. The new arrangements provide for asylum seekers to be dispersed to cluster regions outside London. Alongside our partner refugee agencies we are determined that they receive the best possible advice on their choices within the new system. The Refugee Council will take the lead in London, Yorkshire, the West Midlands and the East of England. By April 2000 we have undertaken to have teams in each of these regions to advise new asylum applicants giving them access to our essential One Stop Service support function.

Just how far will some Labour councils go to prove their level of multiracial madness?

Nationalities include Kosovo Albanian, Iranian and Iraqi, and 200 more are expected to arrive from Dover this year.

A public meeting will be held on Thursday at the Irish Centre in Fitzwilliam Street, Huddersfield, at 7.30pm, with the aim of setting up a support group.

Councillors and local authority officials and representatives of other organisations are set to attend.

Organiser Pam Bye, of Golcar, who takes English classes with the asylum seekers at Huddersfield Technical College, said "we have set up a working party and put together a framework for what we want to do.

"We also want to get a building to use as a community centre.

"It doesn't matter if it is in disrepair because the asylum seekers have many skills and could renovate it themselves."

THE ABOVE ADVERTISEMENT WAS PUBLISHED IN THE 'GUARDIAN' CAREERS SECTION IN JANUARY 2000.

This is the real face of the Labour Government when it comes to dealing with refugees and asylum-seekers.

Despite all the 'tough-talk' from Home Secretary Jack Straw about cracking down on economic migrants and bogus asylum-seekers, the real action is coming from the Labour councils and government sponsored bodies like the Refugee Council.

The jobs advertisement from the Refugee Council, pictured above, shows just how well paid the officials are who are going to "offer a warm welcome to asylum seekers".

When so many ordinary British people are struggling in low paid jobs or living on benefits, it is a scandal that so many new, highly paid jobs are being created to assist the refugees in settling in Britain.

Notice the wording of the multi-racialist wording of the ad. - "All posts require an understanding of the needs of refugees and the issues facing ethnic minorities in Britain today."

WHAT ABOUT AN UNDERSTANDING OF THE NEEDS OF THE REAL
BRITISH PEOPLE IN BRITAIN TODAY?

MADNESS IN SLOUGH.

At a recent meeting of Slough Borough Council, it was decided that the content of Religious Studies in the district would have to be changed because over 40% of the children in Slough's schools are of "ethnic minority status" and the curriculum would have to change accordingly.

As one Broadword reader commented
"Where the Hell are we going?"

NO TO ST. GEORGE !

In a fit of left-wing, political correctness the Burtonwood Brewery group refused to allow a new landlord of a pub in Tamworth, Staffordshire to change the pub's name from the "Scotsman" to "The St. George". This was because the brewery felt that changing the pub to a patriotic English theme by naming it after England's patron saint would offend and upset "non-English customers" ! Landlord Gary Cartwright set up a campaign and forced the brewery to see sense. Patriots won the day - St. George.

ABOVE: The 'celebration' of Black heritage in the USA - in Britain the liberal-multi-culturalists are pushing to allocate tax-payers money to fund similar activities for the 'ethnic minorities'.

WHAT ABOUT WHITE HERITAGE ?

Politics for whites only

In our ethnically cleansed democracy, Labour is the most culpable of all the parties ties have no excuse. William Hague's problem is that his party's rank and file manifestly does not want to be represented by black or Asian people.

Labour's high command has no such constraints. The leadership of the party is desperate to put competent, non-white people into office, and has discreetly tried to use the Millbank machine to widen its range of candidates. For exam-

Even the Left fails to grasp what is taking place here. An associate of Ken Livingstone's told The Observer last week that black Londoners did not want to be represented by the black middle classes. He could not be more wrong. Go to any Indian community, any African-Caribbean church or any mosque and the desire to 'get on' is palpable. The talk is of 'role models' and success. That's what New Labour's failure to elevate tion of selection, with high-powered interviews and presentations, though improving the calibre of candidates, requires a kind of life experience denied to many from the minority communities. Would the young Bernie Grant have made it through the current process? Possibly not. Not because his views were too left-wing, but because his plain spokenness would have been deemed too much of a risk with a hostile media pack.

THE ARTICLE ABOVE APPEARED IN A NATIONAL NEWSPAPER IN MAY 2000.

The writer of the article is the Labour Party politician Trevor Phillips, the failed candidate for Deputy Mayor of London (Phillips was running mate to Frank Dobson). Incredibly Phillips is attacking racism in the Labour Party! In an outburst of sheer arrogance he demands that the Labour Party in London should have at least 25 Members of Parliament who are non-White. Phillips further claims that Tony Blair's Labour Government owe the 'ethnic minority population of Britain a great debt, because the 'core voters' for Labour are not "the traditional , white working-classes" <his words> but "Nine out of ten African-Caribbeans and two out of three Asian voters back Labour."

Trevor Phillips is an affluent and highly placed Labour Party politician so there should be no doubting the accuracy of his claims.(despite this spiteful article he is a Labour Party representative in the new London Assembly and a part of Blair's inner party).

Incredibly Phillips is demanding even more political power in the British Parliament and local government for blacks and Asians. The threat to Blair and the Labour Party HQ at Millbank is obvious. Phillips ignores the fact that the 'ethnic minorities' officially make up less than 10% of the total population of the UK and is pushing for political representation which far outweighs their numbers. As this article is so dismissive of the "traditional white working-classes", the future for the indigenous British people does not look good if the likes of Trevor Phillips realises his ambitions.

Incredibly the prison authorities in Texas have even refused to allow White POW Christopher Brosky to receive a copy of Tolkein's classic book the Lord of the Rings, because they considered it to be "racially inflammatory."

This refusal is in spite of the fact that Tolkein's book is set in an entirely mythological world of elves and dwarves and hobbits in a Dark Age 'Middle Earth' and is internationally recognised as one of England's greatest works of mythical fiction.

However Hispanic and Black/Afro-American prisoners are allowed to receive militant racial and 'Black/Hispanic Pride' publications.

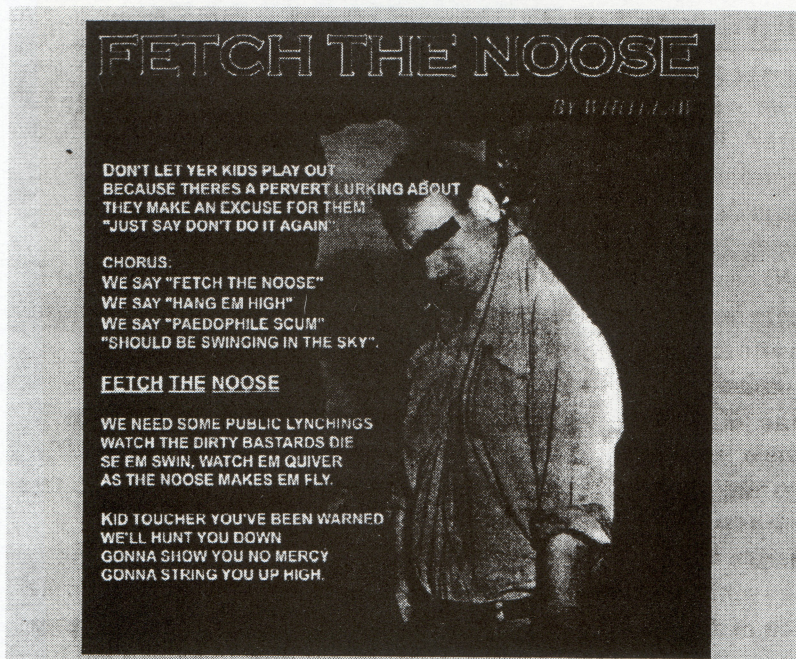

ABOVE: The official stoppages letters sent to BROADSWORD by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. The American Prison system refuses to allow uncensored copies of British Movement publications to be passed on to named White prisoners. The system claims that the literature is 'gang related' and ignores the obvious political nature of the material.

THOUGHT CRIMES - THE E.U. RULINGS.

Few people in Britain appear to have noticed that the Labour Government of Tony Blair and Jack Straw have introduced new laws to silence political dissent and are drawing on European Union Directives to plug any gaps. The Crime and Disorder Act, 1998 is now law in the UK and in 1999 was used against the first political dissident - a 78 year old Merseyside pensioner- George Staunton, a UK Independence Party supporter was charged under Section 30 of the new act as a 'racist' - his crime was a poster saying "Free Speech for England" alongside the St. George's Cross flag. More dangerous is Article K1 of the Amsterdam Treaty which the EU commissars have designed "to combat racism and xenophobia". Left-wing Labour activists and similar politicians are urging the Home Office to use the full range of powers under this legislation to silence all "racist" behaviour and thought. Left-wing activists are particularly keen to see these laws used at election time and against publications like BROADSWORD.

DEATH OF A PERVERT.

BRITISH JUSTICE AS A KNOWN PAEDOPHILE IS SHOT DEAD ON HIS OWN DOORSTEP.

Spring 2000 got off to an excellent start in London's East End when sexual deviant Bill Malcolm took a single bullet through the head on his doorstep in Forest Gate.

Bill Malcolm, age 46 had a sordid history of sexual offences against young boys. Malcolm was a known associate of the Hackney based pervert gang of Sidney Cooke, Leslie Bailey, Robert Oliver and Stephen Barrell, who were convicted of the sex murder of 14 year old Jason Swift in 1984. Malcolm was also known to be a 'friend' of former scoutmaster and deviant Brian Turner, known as the "Chickenmaster", for his 'skills' in obtaining young boys for pervert orgies. Bill Malcolm was described as a "paedophile with strongly sadistic tendencies". Police reports described Malcolm's death as a professional hit, carried out by two white males.

PERVERT TEACHER IN DULWICH AFRAID OF 'REPRISALS'

March 3rd 2000- "South London Press" carried the story of Child Porn pervert Jonathan Kreeger, age 41, of Scutari Road, East Dulwich, living in fear of 'reprisals', after his conviction for possession of indecent computer pictures of under age boys. Now on the Sex Offenders Register, the sexual deviant was a teacher at Dulwich College Prep School. Now he was in fear of violence/justice after the neighbourhood was anonymously leafleted and a "warning" sent to Kreeger.

"SEARCHLIGHT" EDITOR LOSES COURT CASE .

The High Court, February 2000.

After a five day trial Morris Ripley a Chesterfield based accountant was awarded £5,000 damages against "Searchlight" magazine editor Gerry Gable; one-time column writer Ray Hill and against "Searchlight" magazine itself.

The damages were sought in regard to an article in the magazine in August 1993 in the so-called "Hill Street News Column".

Although the magazine claimed that the column was penned by Ray Hill, Hill denied writing the article, confirming long held rumours that the articles were all written by Gable not Hill.

The three "Searchlight" defendants were represented by Counsel from the Chambers of Mischon de Reya.

Judge Walker awarded the damages after the jury delivered a unanimous verdict in favour of Mr. Riley. "Searchlight" defence elected to call no evidence.

Legal complications meant that Mr. Riley was ordered to pay defendant's costs from Feb. 11th, but was awarded full damages.

DID SOMEBODY SAY HE WAS BRITISH ?

February 2000 - Bombay India.

New agencies reported that a British policeman had been arrested in connection with a plot to smuggle heroin into Britain - the arrested man was part of a five man gang involved in the racket - it appears that he is presently a serving officer with the police in Lancashire - the name of the British officer is Mubarak Abdul Rahman.

LOOKING BACK - HOW A BRITISH MOVEMENT PREDICTION IS COMING TRUE.

WAY BACK IN THE LATE 1970's, British Movement began the mass distribution of a leaflet entitled, "LONDON HAS FALLEN".

The leaflet highlighted the mass colonisation and takeover of Britain's capital city and the Greater London area by successive waves of Third World immigrants. The leaflet also predicted an unhappy future for London in some unspecified period of the 21st Century when the White British would no longer exist in London and Britain would be a 'Third World' country inhabited by the mixed-race descendants of the non-white peoples who had colonised the city in the second half of the 20th Century.

The leaflet attacked successive governments for failing to halt the 'invasion of Britain' and pointed to British Movement's up-hill struggle to counter the media onslaught against those who opposed 'coloured immigration' into Britain and the denial of freedom of speech to the British Movement. Included in the leaflet text is reference to racial and political violence on the streets of London; government sponsored propaganda in support of multi-racialism; repressive race-relations laws intended to silence opposition to immigration and denial of meeting halls to British Nationalists.

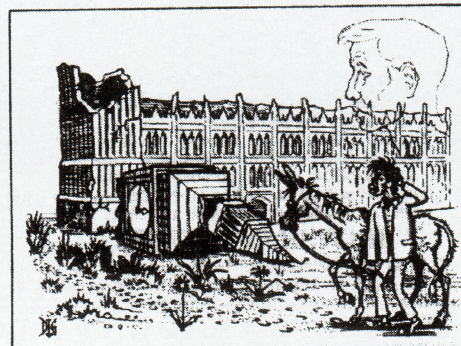

In the following decades since the leaflet was published, the situation has gone from bad to worse. The grim crop of population statistics show that the leaflet predictions are fast becoming reality, and the racial violence and media hostility are ever present.

It is a fact that successive British governments (especially Labour governments) have struggled to take 'Race' out of British politics. It has been official policy in both the Labour Party and the

ANNOUNCEMENT LONDON HAS FALLEN

Britain's capital city is now almost completely occupied by alien hordes of Asiatic and Negroid origin. Whole areas have been taken over and, on every street corner, there is evidence of the overwhelming numbers of the invaders.

These forces of occupation have colonised Britain and are now able to vote. Those Britons who haven't fled are surrounded in enclaves. The major political parties are collaborating with the invaders and already, an Act has been passed in Parliament that makes it a criminal offence for Britons to oppose the colonisers in effective manner. Government-owned presses are churning out propa-

The front of the BM leaflet first issued in 1979 shown is above and the reverse is on the opposite page.

"London Has Fallen" predicts a multi-racial future for London where the British people are a forgotten race and the crumbling remains of British institutions and monuments has no meaning for the Third World inhabitants of London's ruins.

FACT - LONDON IS NOW THE MOST ETHNICALLY DIVERSE CITY IN THE WORLD, BEATING NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO FOR THAT DUBIOUS HONOUR.

FACT - LONDON HAS 12% OF THE TOTAL UK POPULATION AND OF THAT POPULATION, ONE IN FOUR PEOPLE IN CENTRAL LONDON IS FROM AN ETHNIC MINORITY.

ganda in favour of the invaders whilst making it illegal to counter their propaganda. All public halls in the city have been denied to Britain's patriots but allowed to coloureds and communists.

The press for the large part have openly sided with the collaborating government and are denouncing White patriotic Britons as 'fascists' and 'nazis' and are not stopping short of lying and smearing.

Vicious fighting is escalating in London and communist and coloured attacks on patriots and police alike are increasing. The Government seems likely to side with the violent elements and institute further curtailments of patriotic liberty. The Government's agencies are considering prosecuting the leader of an opposition political party, the British Movement for distributing a leaflet headed: "What Did You Do During The Coloured Invasion Daddy?"

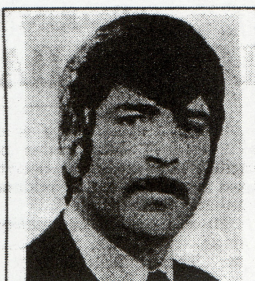

The BRITISH MOVEMENT, a legal British political party consisting solely of British patriots is quickly growing despite the lies and slanderous attacks by the press and other collaborators. Thinking Britons, loyal to their country and people are quickly realising that BRITISH MOVEMENT is putting Britons before coloureds and communists and are defending the nation by joining the MOVEMENT.

The MOVEMENT is already making plans to repatriate coloureds, reduce political violence and arrest collaborators. Alien takeover of other cities is imminent but will be averted as more and more people reject collaboration and join and fight with subject of immigration and deliberately sought to create the myth of 'multi-culturalism' and black-British/British Asians. Official government publications avoided referring to immigrants and immigration, changing the language by calling these newcomers "ethnic minorities" and the pointing out the 'benefits' of "cultural diversity". Both parties actively recruited amongst the immigrant communities and rapidly promoted non-whites into prominent posts to reflect Britain's new 'multi-racial' status.

The official government position has been to make any White British opposition to multi-racialism a criminal offence and to label any pro-White British utterances as evil, criminal and out of touch with modern Britain.

This is exactly the kind of future predicted in the leaflet "London Has Fallen" and equally the ultimate fate of London will be as predicted. The Greater London area is ever more cosmopolitan and increasingly robbed of its 'Britishness'.

In the 1960's and 1970's there was wholesale 'White Flight' out of London into the Home Counties as many thousands of White Londoners voted with their feet and left traditional neighbourhoods which had seen rapid colonisation by non-British, Third World newcomers. Large numbers of working-class Londoners, unhappy at this invasion, emigrated themselves, setting out to Australia, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa; leaving behind a vacuum in our nation's capital which was to be filled by strangers who lacked their skills, their culture and heritage, their racial and national identity.

Whole sections of the White population of North London and the East End resettled in Essex, abandoning their streets to thousands of migrants from the Indian sub-continent, Caribbean and West Africa. How long before the traditional East End 'Cockney' becomes a forgotten figure in a dusty museum archive?

How long before the cartoons in the leaflet "London Has Fallen" becomes the sad reality of Central London and Westminster?

"CARRY ON YOUR ANCESTORS'

SERBIA is a Nation under siege, from the external military forces of NATO and the 'New World Order'; from the threat of invasion by Kosovan Albanian irregulars; and from the political enemies within Serbia itself.

The NATO action against Serbian forces in 1999 was seen by the Serbian people as part of a historical struggle for survival by the Serbian nation.

The war in Kosovo was part of an ancient and unfinished battle against the Turkish/Ottoman/ Islamic forces which threaten not only the Serbs, but the entire Balkans and central Europe.

Traditionally the Serbs have seen themselves as a bulwark against the eastern Islamic hordes and the Kosovan Albanians and Muslim Bosnians are part of that ongoing struggle for survival.

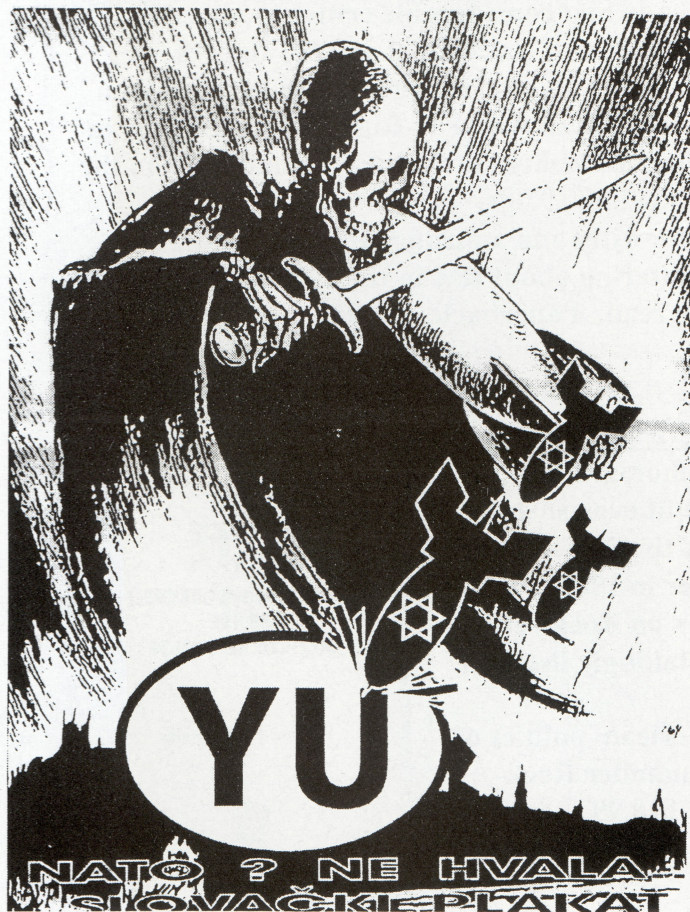

In order to understand the Serbian mentality, we have to look back at Serbia's embattled history. The recurrent theme in Serb Nationalist literature are the traditional images of Serbs against Turks; against Islam; defending Serb culture and territory.

NATO ? NIE-ĐAKUJEM...

To understand the importance of Kosovo to the Serbs, it is also necessary to understand the history of Yugoslavia. The Yugoslav state was created in the wake of the Great War 1914 - 1918 and was put together by the Allies from provinces of the former Austro-Hungarian Empire. Yugoslavia was welded together from a motley collection of small countries and principalities, each very different and with conflicting cultures, histories and allegiances.

Serbia was traditionally the Orthodox Christian defender of the Balkans against the Turks and Islam; Bosnia was Muslim, a relic of Ottoman Turkish expansion; Croatia was Roman Catholic; Montenegro was pro-Serb, but fiercely independent; Slovenia was equally independent and generally pro-German.

In the Second World War, Yugoslavia disintegrated and Croatia became independent. There were many conflicting ideologies in the Balkans and a bitter internal partisan war, saw Serb against Serb, Croat against Croat, Slovene against Slovene.

Monarchist Serbs, the Chetniks fought against

Tito and his communist partisans, sometimes against the Axis forces, sometimes alongside them. The victory Tito and the communists had in 1945 created the Federation of Yugoslavia, a communist state until the death of Tito and the later collapse of the Warsaw Pact.

The current head of state, Slobodan Milosevic is a former Communist party boss who forced his people into a war in order to preserve his own power base and political system

KOSOVO is at the heart of Serbian Nationalism because it is in Kosovo that the Serbs holiest monasteries and Orthodox shrines are centred.

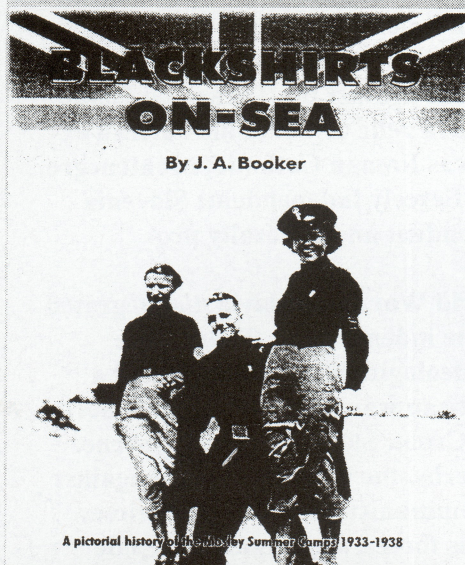

The Serbs cannot turn their backs on the ancient battles fought for Kosovo, any more than the Ulster Loyalists can turn their backs on the Battle of the Boyne in 1690.

Since the NATO victory in 1999, the Albanian KLA has burned Serbian churches in Kosovo and destroyed other Serbian holy places, like the Holy Trinity monastery at Musutiste. Serbian villages are attacked, burned and looted, Kosovan Serbs are murdered. As these atrocities continue, the Serbian people grow angrier and the anger fuels a growing Serbian Nationalist and NS movement against Milosevic.

BLACKSHIRTS ON-SEA. A pictorial history of the Mosley Summer Camps, 1933 - 1938.

By J.A.Booker. 117 pages. Many b/w photographs. The entire book is based on a private photograph album containing a virtual archive of the BUF summer camps in West Sussex in the 1930's.

This is a fascinating book and shows just how well organised and well attended these holiday camps were. Genuinely family centred but politically and ideologically focussed, this book is a window into a forgotten era. The only criticism Broadsword offers is the quality of reproduction of some of the photographs, nevertheless this book is a must for anyone interested in the BUF. Softcover.....£18.00.

MANY SHADES OF BLACK. Inside Britain's Far-Right.

By John Bean. 259 pages. some b/w photographs. This book has already had considerable criticism aimed at it by a number of veteran British Nationalist and NS figures. However the book is still an interesting account of how John Bean saw his involvement in the "Far-Right" from his time in the post -1945 Union Movement up to his resignation from the National Front in the late 1970's. The book is at times witty and amusing, at times hostile and acidic (not very flattering about BM in the 1970's). Still an interesting read. Paperback....£8.95.

HATE - George Lincoln Rockwell and the American Nazi Party.

By William H. Schmatz. 388 pages, many b/w photographs. Definitely not written from an N.S. viewpoint, but even so an interesting and reasonably accurate biography of the founder and leader of the ANP in the 1960's up to his murder in 1967. There are some inevitable errors in the chapters on Rockwell's trip to England in 1962 <these have been painstakingly listed in detail by Colin Jordan in a recent bulletin>. Nevertheless the book is an insight into the American politics of its time and the actions and motivation of Commander Rockwell.Hardback edition available in the UK....£18.99.

RADICAL OPINION

A selection of short articles.

"THE PATH WHICH STANDS IN FRONT OF US, WILL BELONG TO THOSE WITH THE LONGEST MEMORY."

Friedrich Nietzsche.

FolkWays, FolkLife, FolkFeeling. By Varin.

It has always been a habit with me to think what I feel. This I guess makes me an idealist. What I am trying to get at is the nature of feeling. For me, feeling is what National Socialism is all about. The senses; sight, sound, taste, touch, smell. Natural phenomena, natural law.

That is what is instinctive.

In a world which thrives on TV, fashion, drugs etc. the masses lack feeling.

The eyes of the masses are ever greedy for unreality.

I try as often as possible, although not as often as I would like, to get out and about in the open fields, woods and hills of my locality. I see the ancient sites and often read about the history of my area. It is here that I find the guidance and protection of the Ancestors.

Here I find the guidance and wisdom of Mother Earth.

From the Industrial Revolution onwards, the people who once dwelt on the land, and daily communed with nature, and whose years were aligned to her cycles, were numbed as far as the instincts were concerned. To me it is this detachment from the land, from our true home, that has given rise to the materialistic decadence of the twentieth century.

I am nostalgic. But not in the sense that I believe that what once was, cannot be again.

National Socialism to me, is that which I felt as a child in a rural community, and that which our ancestors felt when they were one with the land. They speak to us still, although their voices are faded. But still the feeling of love for the land, and for good blood, tells us not to surrender to the evils of our time.

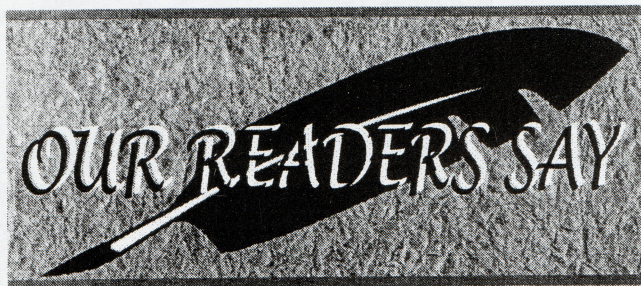

But rather to awaken to that which was, that it shall be again.

THE LANCASTER COUNTY EXPERIENCE - A personal account of a visit to the USA, and an inspiring mono-cultural society, viewed shortly after becoming a National Socialist. There is a one-week experience that lives vividly in my memory even though it was almost twenty years ago. For one week of a longer stay in the USA, it was my pleasure to stay in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and to be given a warm welcome by people I had never met before.

Crime was almost non-existent in Lititz, the small town in which I stayed. I remember being shocked when the woman with whom we stayed, got out of her car in the middle of town, did not lock the door and left her bag on the front seat in full view. "No-one steals things around here", she said. Having spent the previous week in New York, I could barely believe that there were places in America where such trust was possible. There was a strong feeling of community. The area in which I stayed was certainly mono-racial and was almost entirely multi-ethnic as well. The people were German-Americans, the "Pennsylvania Dutch". These were people with a strong sense of their ethnic heritage. Most of the people were also of similar faith, Mennonites. These were the descendants of the Anabaptists of northern Germany, who came to America to find religious freedom. I even had the privilege of taking part in a Mennonite service that incorporated a "love feast". This ceremony was a sharing of food among the congregation as an affirmation of Christian love for each other.

Lancaster County is perhaps best known for the Amish communities. My impression was that they had sold out to profit, using public interest in themselves and their lifestyle to turn their farms into tourist attractions. The Mennonite people dressed conservatively, many of the women wore headscarves, their dress was modest but not anachronistic. Family structures seemed strong beyond just the nuclear family. Folk customs were very much in evidence. This was the heartland of the famous Pennsylvania Dutch quilts with their distinctive motifs. Traditionally these quilts were made by circles of women who used the activity to extend hospitality to each other and enjoy good fellowship. This one week of my life amongst these people was instrumental in giving me a standard by which to measure society. I saw the results of a society that was mono-cultural, and upheld spiritual and moral values. In the two decades since I visited Lancaster County, I have no idea if it has started to unravel. I hope not. It is my hope that these communities continue to stand as shining beacons of how our Folk could live.

MARCHING ON.

You breathe the hate I speak.
I know the truth you seek.
You want to lift that veil,
That shades your eyes with Hell.
Shed no tears in vain,
For those who bitch about their pain.
Holocaust, the past is the past.
What's lost is lost, new lies are cast.
Mongrel races seeking sympathy,
In return they find only hate and apathy.
Don't waste time dwelling on the past,
Marching on, we're coming hard and fast!
Fear not the things you can see,
Just fear the Aryan Breed!
Holocaust, the past is the past,
What's lost is lost, now your Empire will crash!

ENGLISH - WHAT DOES THAT MEAN ?

All of us, who are English that is, would have been out celebrating our national day in April.

St. George's Day of course on the 23rd of April, celebrating his death in AD 303. WRONG, because very, very few of us knew that due to a religious festival called Easter deciding to fall on that day - and without any ado, the government moved St. George's Day to May 2nd, the day after red Labour day, which itself was marked with such respect and reverence in Central London by riots, and backed by a man we know as "Red Ken", who supports 'Direct Action'.

It is a very sad indictment on us English that so few of us even know when St. George's Day is even supposed to be held, let alone when the 'authorities' decide to 'move' it quietly.

The vast majority of our Welsh, Scots and Irish bretheren all know and celebrate their nation's patron's days, but after a recent poll in England I was appalled to learn that a large majority of the 'English' had no idea when or indeed who St. George was. We are so used to seeing people who participate in the coldblooded murder of innocent women and children, with full government backing, marching down our capital's streets, (which they have tried to bomb the hell out of), celebrating St. Patrick's Day, or the Easter Rising. But when I want to fly my St. George's Cross outside my house on our national day, I receive a visit from the local pen-pusher, do gooder, Politically Correct, department of my local authority, and I am told to take it down as I do not have planning permission. I was indeed once told that my flag was considered offensive to my local 'ethnic minority bretheren' and therefore was to be considered a racist statement and would be issued with a compulsive order backed by prosecution if I did not obey!

When I was at school we used to sing the National Anthem at assembly, and on St. George's Day we were given a half day and free time to pursue what hobbies or sports we liked. Now it seems illegal to fly our national flag.

What has gone wrong with the English and indeed being English? Again, recent polls show a disturbing move in the English, when people polled said they thought Tony Blair, Michael (Miguel) Portillo, Lenny Henry and Prince Philip were English. (They are respectively, Scottish, Spanish, Jamaican, and Greek). They cannot call themselves English in the true sense. Our whole identity of nationhood seems to be at stake and is crumbling around us. Our government has deemed it sensible to start breaking up the United Kingdom, giving limited self government to the Scots, Welsh and Northern Irish. I do not object to this, but what about the English? We have Scots, Welsh, Irish, Jewish and Asian M.P.'s deciding how the English should run their education, health and economy.

We already have a huge 'ethnic' population in our midst who are falsely calling themselves, not British, but English. They are not and can never be English. It seems to me that the very word English is being bastardised, abused and misrepresented, when it is not being completely ignored. I really think it is time we English started to stand up and start shouting for our own behalf.

From a proud Englishman, V-Max Mark.

SELFISH INDIFFERENCE IS THE MORTAL ENEMY OF WHITE BRITAIN.

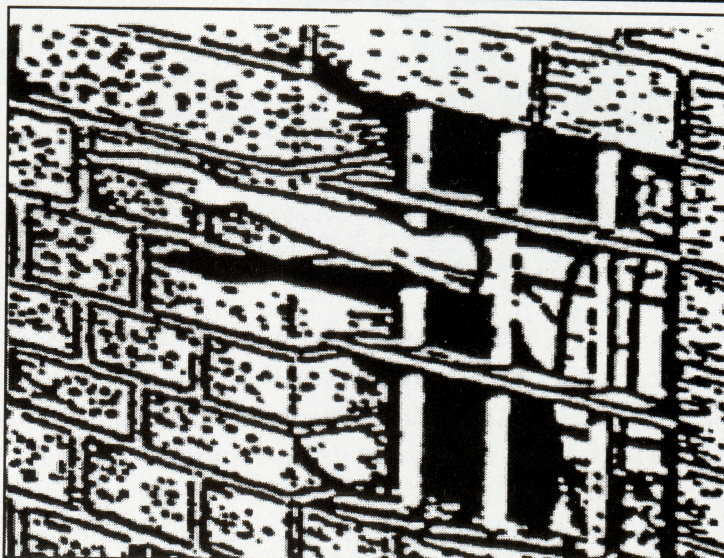

Dear Sirs,

Thank you for sending me the copy of Broadsword No.17, and for the helpful report on my campaign in self defence against the Thought Police which it contains.

I have still not heard whether I am to be prosecuted, although it is now over 18 months since the first raid took place in the present affair.

Meanwhile I have had my hip replacement operation, leaving hospital a week ago and being incapacitated for a further couple of months or so while recovering.

With good wishes,
Colin Jordan.

"A LETTER FROM INSIDE".

Who is the Evil One? Who is the man with no moral fibre?

Whilst out on 'association' in my new surroundings, one of Her Majesty's Finest Institutions (sic), I was lured into a debate with other inmates, after they had:

a) seen my tattoo's, and b) a local newspaper article relating to my charges. After putting forward a few of our aims; the reason for our Struggle; lessons on our heritage; my feelings on White Pride (or lack of it) and matters concerning immigration; and when prompted, my views on the years 1939 to 1945; (and I must admit, all points were well outlined and based on fact and personal experience). I was given a torrent of verbal abuse, stating that I was a) sick, b) evil, c) scum, d) lower than dogst, e) a dirty "nazi" bastard. These comments took me aback a little. Were they coming from the Governor, the 'Screws' or even non-whites? No. But from a group of car-thieves, burglars, junkies and dope-dealers! Who reckoned that they were White. I managed to keep my temper in check and walk away, laughing out loud. The trouble is, that if I had reacted violently, then it would have been me that was 'nicked' and 'blocked' for 28 days, and also lose some of my remission time. So nothing new there, same as down town on any Friday night for most of us. I ask myself the question, "am I the sick evil one?" I have not robbed anyone. Burgled anyone. I haven't got someone hooked on 'smack' so that they neglect their kids, just so that they can rob some cash to 'score another bag' and stop the 'rattle'. So who is the real criminal? The real scum?

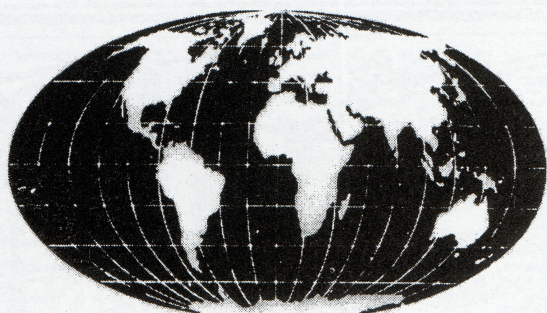

Under the eyes of the Law, because I am not a dribbling junkie, who robs to feed his habit, but a proud White man, with pride in his race and Motherland, I am a far more dangerous criminal. But am I? Surely I am a prisoner of conscience, a political prisoner?

Has the London "nail-bomber's" actions been deemed as politically motivated? Or as a criminal act of a madman? If his name had been Gerry Adams or Nelson Mandela, would there not have been public outcry of "he is being oppressed". Their actions are said to be in retaliation to the treatment by the forces of White oppression for centuries.

The British Judiciary see Adams and his cronies as political activists with a reasonable case to put forward. So accordingly they segregate them when they imprison them. But in the case of British Nationalists or National Socialists, things are very different. We are classed as criminals, and thrown into prison wings up and down the country that are filled with our enemies. We are classed as scum, sick and evil. Locked into the multi-racial prison system, where our personal safety is put at risk, where an attack can be bought for the price of a 'bag' (ten pounds worth of 'smack') and any 'rattler' will attack you with a variety of weapons to earn that 'score'. But Adams and friends can spend their jail time in safety, surrounded by their own kind, safe in the knowledge that the judiciary and British Government will do all in its power to keep them safe. I ask one more question, expecting no answer - "Where has justice gone?"

US ANTI-RACISTS WAGE LEGAL WAR AGAINST HAMMERSKINS.

In recent years the standard tactic taken against National Socialist and White Power organisations by the American anti-racist movements has been extensive and costly legal actions. Heavily funded by Zionist groups and quasi-government bodies like the NAACP, with heavy-weight legal teams, the strategy is to destroy the White Power groups by million-dollar law suits. The latest such court moves are being made against the Hammerskin Nation, the Western Hammerskins, and its chapters in Riverside Hemet and San Diego.

The 'civil rights' law suit has been brought against the Hammerskins by Randy Wordell Bowen, a 24 year old black man, who claims to have been attacked, beaten and stabbed by a gang of White skinheads in March 1999. (allegedly inspired by the Hammerskins).

The law suit holds both local and national American Hammerskins groups as responsible for the alleged assault on Bowen. The lawsuit has the support of the Southern Poverty Law Center, which has in the past used this legal process to destroy a number of KKK groups and bankrupted White Aryan Resistance leader Tom Metzger.

A spokesman for Bowen's team of attorneys, Andrew Roth, has named thirty people in the lawsuit; this includes the six skinheads who allegedly attacked Bowen, and amazingly the parents of two of the accused who were juveniles at the time. The parents are being sued by Bowen's team for "negligently supervising minors", in other words allowing them to be skinheads and not preventing them from being involved in the alleged attack!

Bowen is hoping for damages in excess of $50,000. - this case continues.

SOUTH AFRICA.

Killing of 'man-eating' Lions draws protests from White farmers.

Marloth Park on the edge of the Kruger National Park has seen outrage from White farmers when three Lions were trapped and shot as man-eaters by district authorities.

Local Whites felt that the wild lions were good watch dogs and discouraged thieves and prowlers at night. The trapping was authorised after provincial law officers discovered the half eaten remains of an unidentified black African near Nyala Street in Marloth Park. The lions left only his head, one foot (still in its shoe) a baseball cap, and a solar panel stolen from a nearby house. Police suspect that the dead man was an illegal immigrant from Mozambique and a burglar.

Every few months, Kruger Park rangers find the remains of illegal immigrants from Mozambique who cross lion territory in the park as they try to evade border patrols. Many illegals resort to theft and burglary in the wealthy White districts. The free roaming lions are a useful deterrent to criminal activity at night and provide this ecologically sound service for free.

ZIMBABWE/ (formerly RHODESIA)

As this issue of BROADSWORD goes to press, the situation in former Rhodesia, gets slowly worse for the White minority. Rumours continue to circulate that President Robert Mugabe will finally authorise the seizure of White owned farms without compensation. This may also lead to the forced expulsion of the residual White minority from Zimbabwe. Rumours also circulate that the British government has plans to airlift 20,000 people of British decent back to the UK, leaving the rest to their fate.

SOUTH AMERICA - CHILE.

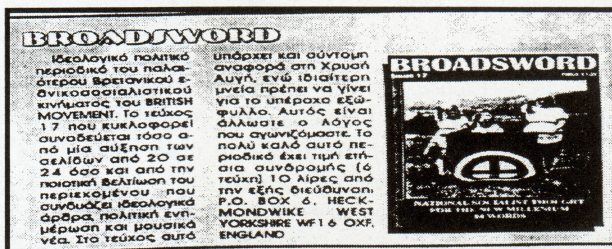

The National Socialist movements of Latin America held an international congress for Hispanic National Socialist and racial Nationalists in Santiago, Chile during April. Titled - The First International Ideological Meeting of National Socialists - the invitations to attend the gathering were sent to organisations in all Spanish speaking countries. The hosts for the congress were the Patria Nueva Sociedad (PNS) of Chile. Predictably the international Zionist lobby was hard at work flexing its 'diplomatic' muscle to have the rally banned. Overseas delegates to the Congress were prevented from entering Chile by the Chilean security police, aided and abetted by Interpol. Despite the oppression the congress went ahead.

LETTER FROM SERBIA

Racial Greetings Comrade, I would like to thank you for writing and magazine Broadsword.

Broadsword is a great magazine and technically its very modest. In Serbia it is extremely bad economically and political situation, and in that case we could not print magazines in full colour pages. We wish you well. Best Regards.

BROADSWORD is favourably reported once again in the Greek N.S. press. A welcome review of Broadsword appeared in the latest issue of the magazine of the Youth Front of the Greek NS movement the GOLDEN DAWN.

Many thanks to our Hellenic NS comrades.

LETTER FROM A POW - USA.

A most racial greeting to you!

I hope this missive finds you all in the best of health and highest of Aryan spirits, I can assure you that it leaves that way.

This is concerning a publication my comrade shared with me, titled "Broadsword". It was an excellent 'zine and I would enjoy contributing if I may.

I am 100% English, I'm sure there are lots of my family near your city, the 'Swales' family has branched off and came to the U.S. in the last 40 years. I am 21 years of age, and currently I am incarcerated for 8 years for taking 'extreme action' during a fight. I have served 4 years and have spent little over 3 years studying racial literature and effectively preparing myself for our Cause. I am racially aware now and make it an effort to help educate other Whites. It is a hard fight to do what we do in Texas, but nothing will stand in our way.

If it is not a problem, please send me information and magazines. Good luck brothers with fighting the struggle.

Much Brotherly Loyalty and Respect.

Dear Broadsword,

I recently read an article, which, as a fervent anti-EU man, I was not the least surprised about. The pen-pushing, money grabbing, corrupt gravy train of Brussels bureaucrats had commissioned a map of the EU which depicts every country in the European Union, except one. You guessed it - England is missing. But Scotland, Ulster, and Wales are shown as constituent parts of the UK. Germany is there, broken into its various states; France into its departments; Spain in its regions; Belgium, twice, once in French, once in Flemish; indeed even Switzerland was shown, which is not in the EU. But where is the green and pleasant land called England?

It is shown divided up into artificially constructed regions called North West, North East, South West etc. To add insult to injury, the St. George's Channel has been re-named the Celtic Sea. (not such a bad name I confess). Only in the English Channel does the EU's most ancient nation get a mention.

A proud Englishman - V-Max Mark.

LETTER FROM POW - USA - NUMBER 2.

Say what's going on my brother? I just got the '14 Word Broadsword you sent me. These bastards had to approve it. They clipped a couple of pages but let me have most of it. I appreciate ya'll running my name in it, I got a letter from a bro' over there a few days ago. It's always good to meet bro's who are pushing for the same cause. One of my favorite articles in the last Broadsword was the one on Odinism. That is something I want to learn about too.

Well as you can see, I've changed address, I got into a little altercation and they shipped me here to a max. unit. It's not too bad. Take it easy bro' I appreciate the mag. and everything. Keep up the good work.

Dear Comrades,

You must excuse my bad grammar, I hope its good enough to understand me. I am a German National Socialist and I think that it is a important duty to make contacts to comrades worldwide. Together we are strong!

Here in Germany the NS-Movement is illegal, so it is very important for us to have contacts with nations where the NS is not forbidden. Its a very good thing to write and speak with other National Socialists.

With Comrade greetings, Axel. Deutschland.

Dear Sir,

I cannot see that I have any real talents that could be used by the BM but I believe with a passion in our Nation. It tears at the soul to see it laid waste by greedy, self-serving politicians and given away to 'stranger-folk' whose very lifeblood is corruption.

I applaud and support your actions.

ARYAN ANTHEMS

*Broadsword reports on the pro-white music scene.
BATTLE HYMNS Reviewing the latest CD releases.
By SHEP*

PEOPLE HATERS - "Everythings Kosher". - <Panzerfaust Records>.

Here is an American band that have raised more than a few eyebrows within the pro-White music scene over the years. They have a very distinctive vocalist and tend to deliver their deadly serious lyrics in a humorous, light-hearted fashion. Some of the tracks here had me laughing out loud, such as "a towel's not a hat", "boobyman" and "Stdick". But this CD isn't for those of you who are seeking any inspirational, deeply ideological messages. However it is a good album and the music is crisp, well played, hard rock and roll. You definitely cannot accuse 'People Haters' of having every song sounding the same and "Everythings Kosher" has a diverse feel throughout.

So if you feel like cracking open a few beers, having a good laugh, and cranking up the volume on some hard 'white power' rock 'n' roll, then make sure that this CD is playing on your stereo!

Duration: - 43.40. Production: - Clear, powerful. Musical style: - Mostly hard rock, but a few other musical styles that accompany the theme of the song, a mock reggae beat in "Afro" and an Indian sitar on "Towel is not a Hat". Lyrics: - Some of the songs are best described as 'racist jokes' set to music, but some are topical subjects. Artwork: - Yet again, the popular artist 'Griffin' has produced a hilarious cartoon cover that perfectly compliments the 'People Haters' style.

NO JUSTICE - "Rock Against Paedophiles". <Independent Voice Records>

The issue of child molesting and paedophiles is something that all decent, right thinking, White folk are deeply concerned about. Thus, two British Blood & Honour bands, Celtic Warrior and Whitelaw have joined forces to bring out a three track mini-CD to highlight the injustice that happens when pathetic, liberal treatment allows these low-life scum to walk away from the British Government's 'Justice System' with a slap on the wrist. This campaigning CD does not talk of harsher sentences or more intense therapy, but offers the ONLY SOLUTION to the disease that endangers our Aryan children, and that is Hang the Paedophile scum! The CD has a re-vamped version of Whitelaw's "Fetch the Noose" and Celtic Warrior's "To the Gallows" plus the title track "No Justice" which is a combination of both bands. To sum it up, this CD is a great idea and I hope that some copies manage to circulate into the general public arena. Well done No Justice!

Duration: - 11.49. Production: - Good quality. Musical style: - Skinhead rock. Lyrics: - straight to the point, direct - just how I like it. Artwork: - Superb imagery and totally professional layout.

GESTA BELLICA - "Iterum Rudit Leo." - <Tuono Records>.

Gesta Bellica are Italy's leading pro-Aryan band and this CD is a testament to this. The music is very catchy and skilfully delivered. Gesta Bellica are also part of the 'infamous' "Veneto Fronte Skins", Italy's leading NS Skinhead organisation. I recently had the pleasure of interviewing this band for "Blood & Honour" magazine, and can tell you that they really know their stuff! They are not new comers just starting out, but long-time activists committed to the cause of White survival in their Italian homeland. Gesta Bellica sing their songs in Italian, but have played in many different countries across Europe, and always go down well, due to their excellent music and total commitment to the cause.

Duration: - 44.20. Production: - Crisp and professional. Musical style: - upbeat, anthem-style rock/Oi. Lyrics: - All in Italian, but trusted friends from "Londinium Spqr" assure me the words are intelligent and well written. Artwork: - Good quality, full lyrics and band photos throughout.

EXCALIBUR - "Thurisaz". <Movement Records>

Originally, I believe this album was to be titled "Leon the Brave", but regardless of the title, I was more than a little eager to get my hands on my favourite European band's third CD, and I was not disappointed. "Thurisaz" is a lot heavier than their previous two releases and sees Excalibur go 100% 'Death Metal'. I think that after 'Before God' (USA N.S. Death Metal band) released their debut album, it Excalibur -Thurisaz continued. - inspired Excalibur to totally commit to the more technical and intricate sound. Six of the albums tracks are delivered in English, the lyrics provided by Ed Wolbank of BFG; Brad from Eye of Odin; Sid formerly of Runeshield; and Jim of Squadron. As I am sure all NS music followers are aware, the days of purely Skinhead Oi bands producing pro-White anthems are over. With bands like Triskelon - Sweden, Before God - USA, Excalibur - Czech Republic, the music and message is reaching further than ever before.

Duration: 46.10. Production: - First Class. Musical style: - 100% Death Metal. Lyrics: - Direct, topical, aggressive, no cliches. Artwork: - Excellent cover, full lyrics.

AVALON/WHITEWASH - Brothers through Blood. <Panzerfaust Records>

Since this split CD was recorded, Avalon have decided to call it a day as a band. To those of us in Britain, Avalon were a well known part of the Blood & Honour movement for a few years. Since their first two releases "Our Honour is True" and "This is War", (I have not heard "Heritage" yet) Avalon have adopted a back to basics style, with greater emphasis on a rhythm based sound, as opposed to a more technical lead orientated style. There are six good quality tracks, including a cover of Skrew-driver's "Old Albion".

Whitewash are an up-and-coming American outfit based in Richmond, Texas. They are an Oi band and have an unforgiving aggressive style. Even though they are quite new to the scene they have a lot of promise, and of the two bands on this CD, Whitewash have the edge.

Duration: 41.10. Production: - well produced. Musical style: - Avalon play a rhythm based rock sound whilst Whitewash chose a heavy Oi style. Lyrics: - Avalon always produce thoughtful lyrics and avoid cliches; Whitewash favour a more familiar aggressive approach.

Artwork: - Tremendous front cover by 'Griffin', plus band photos and full lyrics.

BOUND FOR GLORY - Hate Train Rolling.

<BFG Productions/Panzerfaust Records>

Here we have the eighth CD from Minnesota's Musical Terrorists; who are widely regarded as the most talented band on our scene. Over the eleven years that BFG have been on the go, their music and lyrics have matured and intensified. Some of the band's sceptics have said that their material is too heavy or too fast, but for those of us who appreciate hard music for hard times, this is another 'must-have' CD. There is a diversity in sound throughout, from the slow, grinding anti-drugs anthem "Better Off Dead" through to the technical, double-bass drum laced "Commando".

'Ugly Americans' is a highly critical look at 'USA Culture' as these lyrics show.... "come visit our great society, McDonalds, Coca-cola, and MTV. Fat asses all over the place. Higher genetics of the American race..." Wayne the band's previous rhythm guitarist has moved on to play lead guitar; while Ed the band's lyricist and long-time lead guitarist has assumed the rhythm role. But, have no fear with these role changes, the quality is just as good and has not been compromised.

Duration: - 36.32. Production: - Faultless. Musical style: - From slow, grinding guitars through to high speed double bass and highly intricate lead solos. Lyrics: - Always topical and direct, sometimes humorous, never cliched. Artwork: - Stunning cover by 'Griffin' and excellent booklet and traycard.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER. - Various.

<Reich O Rama Records>

Since I got this CD, I've not been able to stop playing it!

There are band members from Landser, BFG, People Haters and Stonehammer all chucking their collective talents into a melting pot of pure 'racist rock'. The Landser classic "88 Rock 'n' Roll Band" opens the CD with all the vocalists singing a different verse. I have always liked this track and was pleased to get it on a CD. The next track is my favourite on the album, belted out by BFG frontman and vocalist, Joel, a cover version of AC/DC's "Dirty Deeds", (retitled "Dirty Hebes"- no doubt about the lyrics from this song). There is an excellent Country rock style cover of the 1960's KKK song, "N*r Hat'n' Me". Most of the album is tongue-in-cheek, outright White power rock 'n' roll, designed to be blasted out in skinhead club-houses and parties the world over! However, one track stands out the truly inspirational, powerful, and emotive ballad "Northlands" which reminded me of an old Guns 'n' Roses track - "Patience".

Duration: - 31.04. Production: - Excellent. Musical style: - Heavy rock, Southern/Country rock 'n' roll, Oi and folk ballad. Lyrics: - "Cn Shootin' Boogie"; "Dirty Hebes"; "N*r Hat'n' Me" - say no more! Artwork: - Simple but highly effective designs, this will get right up 'Zog's' noses.

BIELY ODPOR - "Slobody Sen".

<VICTORY RECORDS>

Based in the Eastern European republic of Slovakia, Biely Odpur are one of a growing breed of ultra talented and totally sincere, revolutionary, Aryan bands.

Here in Britain we tend to have a bad habit of being reluctant to give non-English speaking bands a fair crack of the whip. But more often than not, it tends to be more of a loss to us! the musical talent displayed on this CD easily rivals, if not surpasses the bulk of bands here in England. The album has been extensively produced, is over fifty minutes long, and has had no expense spared with the top quality artwork and packaging that it is wrapped in.

The current wave of gypsies that are flooding into Britain have previously been swamping Slovakia and the Czech Republic for years. The skinheads out there have not been content to just moan about it, but have taken to the streets every night to 'actively' let these unwanted guests know that they are not welcome. Food for thought eh?

Duration: - 51.37. Production: - As good as any mainstream band. Musical style: - Diverse, hard metal. Lyrics: - Full English translations are given and they show a relentless, uncompromising, but intelligent depiction of their hardcore NS beliefs. Artwork: - The whole CD is dedicated to the Serbian nation and as such contains pictures of war-torn Serbia, as well as visions of beautiful European landscapes.

ROCK AGAINST COMMUNISM - VOLUME 1. (COMPILATION) <Panzerfaust Records>

Way back in the early 1980's, when the skinhead movement was at its greatest here in England, the bands featured on this CD were laying down the foundations for the world-wide movement that exists today.

One thing to remember when listening to this album is that the material was recorded seventeen years ago, hence the sound quality has inevitably deteriorated over the years. But the sentiment is unmistakable. London Branch, Ovaltinees, Skrewdriver, and the Die Hards are all on this CD, and the material by all these bands has never seen the light of day on compact disc until now. The music is 100% authentic English Oi. For many, this will be the first time that they have heard bands such as London Branch and the Die Hards, and I can see this album being a huge seller all over the world. The Skrewdriver material consists of five tracks taken from a 1983 demo featuring "If there's a riot", "Midnight Train", "Streetfight", "Don't let them pull you down" and "Voice of Britain".

This is a real slice of skinhead history and Panzerfaust records ought to feel honoured to be able to release it, as I am sure they do.

Duration: - 60.15. Production: - Back in 1983, production was not a huge priority. Dedication, loyalty, hard work and managing to get it released were considered more important. Lyrics: - These bands were made up of young, White, working class skinheads, living in inner city London, so these lyrics reflect their thoughts and opinions from that time. Artwork: - Sadly no lyrics, but a brief band history is included for each band as well as an introduction to Rock Against Communism history.

A - Z OF BRITISH NATIONALISM AND NATIONAL SOCIALISM.

In the next issue of BROADSWORD we begin a new feature which will be an A to Z of British Nationalism and British National Socialism. The new feature will examine the roots of our ideology, cultural and heritage influences, some of the personalities, events and historical roots of our folk and Nation. This feature follows on from the popular "Nationalism in the Past" feature of earlier issues.

It is intended that the A to Z will be a long running and regular part of BROADSWORD which will inform and educate readers as to how and why our Movement has developed, where its roots lay and what underpins our ideology and our world-view. Contributions from our readers will be welcome and any photographs or illustrations to support the text will be greatly appreciated.
